

DBS Nurses Training Program in Movement Disorders

Advanced

April 12 and 13, 2018
Newcastle, United Kingdom

Course Director

Dr. Anna-Lena Törnqvist Jensen

Mrs. Una Brechany

Faculty

Ms. Claire Nicholson

Prof. Nicola Pavase

Preliminary agenda

Published: February 20, 2018

Thursday, April 12, 2018

Venue: RVI New Education Centre, Royal Victoria Infirmary, Newcastle, United Kingdom

- 8:30 Coffee and gathering
- 9:00 Welcome and introduction - Mrs. Brechany
- 9:20 Patient selection and red flags – Prof. Pavase
- 10:40 Stretch your legs
- 10:45 Brain anatomy and structures/pathways surrounding DBS target structures – Ms. Nicholson

- 12:15 Lunch

- 13:00 Systematic programming example of strategies – Mrs. Brechany & Dr. Törnqvist Jensen
- 13:45 Advanced programming features: interleaving and a "chat" about groups, theory & hands-on – Dr. Törnqvist Jensen
- 15:00 Coffee/Tea break
- 15:30 Interpretation of side effects GPI and STN - Mrs. Brechany
- 17:00 Interpretation of side effects Thalamus - Dr. Törnqvist Jensen
- 18:00 Wrap up of the day and rest before dinner

- 19:30 Group dinner

Friday, April 13, 2018

Venue: RVI New Education Centre, Royal Victoria Infirmary, Newcastle, United Kingdom

- 9:00 Reflections from day 1 and introduction of day 2 - Mrs. Brechany & Dr. Törnqvist Jensen
- 9:15 Understanding the medication & DBS interaction/actions - Dr. Törnqvist Jensen
- 10:30 Coffee/Tea break
- 10:45 Patients compliance/commitment/responsibilities - Mrs. Brechany
- 11:30 Long term care of DBS patients & their families - Mrs. Brechany & Dr. Törnqvist Jensen

- 12:30 Lunch

- 13:00 Professional discussions on programming, patient selection, medication & stimulation, etc. - All

- 14:30 End of program